

18/6/26

GIT: Git is the software - run on your local system to track your local file system - what changes you make - what is the module change - everything the git software will read the process.

→ It will take your file - to the online website called GitHub.

→ You can use the git command.

GIT HUB: Website - web application run on your cloud.

Storage of your files -

Who will use -

New - Show - file name
hidden ext.

private repo
public repo

Local file save, and tracking and project demo as a single person.

git command: (Basic)

git init

git add. (git space add space.)

git commit -m "Something your change" anything you can write

git branch -M main

git remote add origin reposit

git push -u origin main

Create repository.
New repository
Frontend - case number

Choose - public
create repository

Select address bar path.
put end there.

cmd. git init
git add.

git init ka oru time oru folder ka panna padham³ email (mine)

git add. oru time um update panna pannam git commit) → oru " " " "